1. Hubert Jalecic,* a Bolivian Communist, has stated that the next Communist congress will be held in Havana, Cuba, in the near future. The primary purpose of this congress will be the ratification of the new "Fourth International." The congress will also outline and define plans for uniformity of policy and direction of the organization of Communism in Latin America and the United States.
2. At this congress a "most" important plan will be outlined for the sabotage of industrial and commercial production of the United States, in the event that war occurs between the United States and Russia. This plan will be the responsibility of a certain Jan Ludvik Rucimneky.
3. The Russian Embassy in Mexico is reported to be the source of bulletins and other propaganda being issued throughout Latin America and the United States urging cooperation at this congress.
